

NEW QUAKE STRIKES SANTA BARBARA THIRTY MILLION DOLLAR CRASH IN CHICAGO

BROKERAGE HOUSE IS PLACED IN HANDS OF RECEIVER BY COURT

Crash Comes After Creditors Banks File Petition

Chicago, July 3.—A $30,000,000 crash rocked the financial district here today.

Dean Onatavia and Company, one of the oldest brokerage houses in Chicago's chief financial street, was placed in the hands of receivers by Federal Judge Carpenter.

Creditors banks filed the petition. The Chicago Title and Trust Company was named receiver.

Just what the extent of the receivership will be none would venture to say. But Frank Hoolihan, New York, attorney, expert on receivership cases, representing the creditors asserted that $30,000,000 is involved.

Chester R. Davis of the Chicago Title and Trust Company was placed in charge of the company's offices, occupying an entire floor of a loop office building.

Davis barred every one but his immediate aids from the offices, and details concerning the financial difficulties of the company were meagre.

MOONSHINE SCORED BY COURT SENTENCING ALLEGED MURDERER

Cincinnati, July 3.—Sentencing John Downing to the Ohio penitentiary for life, Friday, Judge Dennis J. Ryan, in criminal court, denounced moonshine whiskey, which the prisoner said was responsible for his killing Mrs. Aileen Williams on May 16.

"Moonshine," said the court, "is a poison which converts men, who were made in God's image and should be scarcely lower than the angels, into something worse than the swine that grovel in the gutters, and it is my opinion that such matters should be considered in a case of this kind."

"I believe that those who have encouraged and permitted the condition to exist, who have countenanced a condition under which this defendant could have for the moment converted himself from a man to a beast, should certainly bear some of the moral guilt in this case."

Attorneys for Downing declared that John Williams, husband of the slain woman, sold the moonshine to Downing. The slayer invited the woman to ride home in his machine. Stopping at a lonely road near Price Hill, Cincinnati, he strangled her with her necktie. Then the killer pawned her diamond rings for a few dollars and bought more moonshine.

Downing, a carpenter, has a wife and child and comes from a good family at Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

MUST AID WIDOW OR TAKE PEN SENTENCE

Cleveland, July 3.—Anton Hren, 34, of Cleveland, was pondering today over the decision of Judge Carl V. Weisand, late yesterday, following his conviction on a charge of manslaughter, whether he will divide his earnings for the next three years with the widow of the man he killed or spend five years in the Ohio penitentiary.

Hren ran down and killed John F. Hubbell, who was helping another motorist change a tire. Mrs. Hubbell gained a civil verdict of $22,000 from him recently, which was settled for $7,500.

MRS. COOLIDGE JUMPS FROM PATH OF CYCLE

Swampscott, Mass. July 3.—By the narrowest margin, Mrs. Coolidge, returning from her daily walk this morning, escaped an accident which undoubtedly would have resulted in serious injury.

Accompanied by her secret service guard, James Haley, Mrs. Coolidge had turned into the private roadway leading up to White House when four members of the Massachusetts state constabulary mounted on motorcycles tore around the bend at a high rate of speed.

Haley shouted a warning to Mrs. Coolidge and both jumped, one to each side of the road. The four motorcycles swerved in and passed between the two, missing each only by a hair's breadth.

The motor officers, who will convey the presidential party to Campbridge this afternoon, did not slacken their speed but continued on to the front door of White House Court.

Independence Day Reality For Convict

Columbus, July 3.—Owen McCabe, Altoona, Pa., was ready today to celebrate Independence Day, after serving nearly half of his life behind prison walls.

Armed with a pardon by Governor Donahay, McCabe walked out of the Ohio State penitentiary, free for the first time in eight years. He will spend the remainder of his life with a sister in Altoona, he said.

McCabe was sentenced to life imprisonment after conviction in 1902 of a burglary in Lorain county. He escaped in 1909 and was free for eight years but was recaptured in Milwaukee in 1917, where he was working as a stevedore, when he was arrested for intoxication.

Spanish Heir Hurt When Autos Crash

Madrid, July 3.—The infante Fernando, heir to the Spanish throne, was under a physician's care at the royal palace this afternoon for injuries suffered in a dangerous automobile crash earlier today.

It was announced that the young prince's injuries were not serious—a cut on the left cheek and a bruised leg.

The royal automobile collided with a loaded auto bus, wrecking the lighter car completely. The passengers of the bus were thrown to the ground but none was injured.

HEAT WAVE CONTINUES AFTER THREE SUFFER FROM PROSTRATIONS

Thundershowers Saturday May Spoil Holiday And Break Hot Weather

Columbus, July 3.—Continuance of Thursday's sudden heat wave which struck down two persons here and one in Marysville, was to be expected today, weather bureau officials here predicted.

Relief was promised with thundershowers Saturday. Temperatures from 90 to 94 degrees were expected today.

Heat prostrations here included Harry Vollmer, who succumbed while working in a newspaper stereotyping plant and James Bryson, who collapsed in the street. Both were later able to go to their homes. Mrs. Solomon Turner, 70, Marysville, was struck down while walking to a neighbors. She was expected to recover.

WALES INTERESTED

Johnesburg, South Africa, July 3.—The Prince of Wales showed great interest today in prehistoric ruins near Rhodesia, where his royal highness and his party spent a quiet day.

HERO IS CITED

Fez, Morocco, July 3.—Prince Aage of Denmark, recently decorated with the croix de guerre for his bravery with the foreign legion at Bibane, today was cited in orders for fresh acts of bravery on the field.

VANDERVOORT SUE FOR $25,000 HERE BY POLICEMAN'S WIDOW

Mrs. Emery McCright, Wilmington, Plaintiff in Damage Case

Alleging that her husband died from injuries sustained when he was shot by defendant, Louie McCright, Wilmington administratrix of the estate of Emery McCright, deceased, has brought suit for $25,000 damages in Common Pleas Court against Louis Vandervoort, claiming she and her two children have been deprived of their support by the death of her husband.

An identical action was brought in Clinton County two years ago but was dismissed. The second action is brought in Greene County, the home of the defendant.

The petition states the plaintiff and Emery McCright were married February 15, 1903, and that Emery McCright died February 14, 1922 leaving his widow and two children Edith and Hazel, surviving.

Prior to his death, Emery McCright was a policeman in Wilmington and was in discharge of his regular duties when he received injuries that later resulted in his death, according to the petition.

The plaintiff alleges that the defendant assaulted Patrolman McCright late at night on February 14, 1922 with intent to kill and fatally injured him with a revolver bullet.

The plaintiff claims to have been deprived of her sole support and asks $25,000 damages.

E. J. West and A. E. Clevenger are attorneys for the plaintiff while Attorney L. T. Marshall represents the defendant.

Vandervoort, charged with the slaying pleaded guilty to second degree murder and is now confined in the Ohio Penitentiary. A similar suit brought by Mrs. Mary Matthews, widow of Elvas Matthews, Xenia policeman, was recently settled out of court.

AERIAL DERBY ON

Croyden, Eng. July 3.—Fourteen airplanes hopped off today at the start of the aerial derby for the King's cup. The course is twice around the British Isles, or 1,608 miles.

DARWIN DESCENDANT LIVES UP TO NAME

Dayton, Tennessee, July 3.—Surrounded by an army of fundamentalists, a descendant of the original Charles Darwin was found here today in the very heart of Tennessee's anti-evolution clash.

He is James R. Darwin, a Dayton merchant, who is eligible to serve as a juror at the trial next week of John T. Scopes, on charges of violating Tennessee's "monkey law."

Because of this, Darwin declined to comment on the probable outcome of the case.

The spotlight of publicity fell on the Dayton Darwin, however, when he erected a bright red sign in front of his store reading, "Darwin is right" with the title suffixed "inside."

From a distance this flaming escutcheon appears to be a direct challenge to the host of fundamentalists here who denounce Darwinism and uphold the Tennessee law forbidding the teaching of evolution.

C. A. WALTZ OFFERED SUPERINTENDENCY OF GREENVILLE SCHOOLS

Xenia School Head To Probe Office—Said To Be Attractive

C. A. Waltz, superintendent of Xenia City Schools, has been offered the superintendency of the Greenville, O., schools, it was announced Friday.

Superintendent Waltz had had no official communication from Greenville Friday noon, but had learned through authoritative sources that the position had been offered him.

He had made no application for the position and was unaware as to what had led the Greenville School Board to choose him.

Fifty-five applications have been made for the Greenville superintendency which was left vacant by the resignation of Superintendent Minor MacCool, who has accepted a teaching position in Dayton.

Superintendent Waltz will go to Greenville Tuesday to investigate the details of the position. The office is an attractive one combining the superintendency of the Greenville grade schools, new high school, the Henry St. Clair Memorial Auditorium and the Carnegie Library.

Mr. Waltz has been superintendent of the Xenia Public Schools for the past six years. He came here from Grandview Heights, Columbus, High School. The offer at Greenville is said to contain a substantial increase.

COOLIDGE LEADS IN PAYING HOMAGE TO FATHER OF COUNTRY

Massachusetts Celebrates Anniversary Of Date He Took Charge Of Army

Swampscott, Mass., July 3.—Rolling back the pages of history, President Coolidge today led some 200,000 citizens of Massachusetts in commemorating the anniversary of the date upon which the immortal George Washington, assumed command of the continental army.

It was just 150 years ago today that this epochal event took place on the town common of Cambridge. This afternoon, President and Mrs. Coolidge will motor to Cambridge to take the principal part in an elaborate program of celebration. As the outstanding event of the day, the president is scheduled to deliver an eulogistic address this afternoon. It will be the first public appearance he has made since coming to Massachusetts for his summer vacation.

Mr. Coolidge's address will be delivered from the spot where Washington stood in receiving his command.

Until recently the famous Washington elm towered over the spot.

PROPOSES NEW FLIGHT

Oslo, Norway, July 3.—Captain Roald Amundsen was reconnoitering on the possibility of a flight from Spitzbergen to Alaska as well as attempting to reach the North pole, it was learned today.

Publishers of the afternoon said they had received a message from the polar flyer stating that he had this in mind in his recent flight into the northern wastes.

FRENCH TO SEND DEBT COMMISSION TO U. S. TO NEGOTIATE WAR DEBTS

Cabinet Moves For Adjustment—Hint of Rupture Indicated By Comment Of Paris Press Held Untrue

Paris, July 3.—The French cabinet today decided to send a debt commission to the United States "as soon as possible" to conduct negotiations by which the French war debt of more than $4,000,000,000 may be adjusted.

Announcement of the government's decision was made by Foreign Minister Briand at the conclusion of a cabinet meeting devoted to consideration of France's fiscal affairs.

Paris, July 3.—A hint of expected negotiations before they are begun was seen in the rupture of the French debt negotiations in the battle of words in the Parisian press today.

It arose over the proposal that Finance Minister Caillaux himself head of the French debt mission scheduled to visit Washington this fall.

Caillaux's appointment in this capacity would meet the approval of official Washington as an expression of the importance placed on the missions purpose.

Le Matin and Petit Parisien approved the idea, the latter newspaper pointing out that Caillaux speaks English and is familiar with American conditions. A strong stand in opposition was taken by Pertinax, political commentator in the semi-official Echo de Paris. The finance minister himself admitted it was possible he might go to Washington. His friends said it would depend on whether the negotiations for funding the $4,000,000 French debt promised to be successful.

"It would be painful for Caillaux to be in Washington if it became necessary to break off the negotiations," Pertinax said. He cited the "regret of a majority," of the British that Stanley Baldwin, present minister, headed the British debt funding commission to America and added:

"The history of the last five years should make France wary. The American congress can repudiate the funding committee's arrangements the same as the senate repudiated President Wilson's act at Versailles."

VIOLENT TREMBLER SHAKES HARASSED CITY; 10 INJURED

Debris Shaken Down—Citizens Flee Into Streets Terrorized

SANTA BARBARA, California, July 3.—At least ten persons were injured and considerable damage done by the second earthquake which brought new terror and disaster to stricken Santa Barbara today. The shock at 8:38 reached every portion of the city. Whether districts and outlying sections were hurt is unknown. The shock appeared to center near the Carrico Hotel.

Santa Barbara, Calif., July 3.—Another violent earthquake rocked the entire city at 8 o'clock this morning, causing greater damage and terrorizing citizens.

Extent of damage has not been determined but it is not believed anyone was killed or injured in the newest shock. The new trembler was a violent convulsion of short duration.

Hundreds of persons fled into the streets, women shrieking with terror. Debris from buildings wrecked Monday's quakes, shattered to the ground.

The quake followed a series of light tremors that were felt through the night ending with a fairly heavy "roller" that rocked the city at 3:50 o'clock this morning.

Sleepless thousands rushing to the streets to learn how new damage had been done, were greeted by a rain which followed the shock. Rain was falling steadily shortly after ward and the streets were soon running with water and mud which swirled about the new debris shaken down by the 3:50 tremor. The shock appeared to have ceased with the coming of the rain until the violent quake at 8:30.

Another violent quake shook Santa Barbara at 10:21 o'clock this morning. Bricks and rocks are falling to ground from buildings partly demolished by previous tremors. Small fires in the residential district are under control. None of the injured in the new quake are hurt seriously.

Fire equipment has been sent into the residential district in east sections. Clouds of smoke from center of wrecked business district.

WATCH WASHINGTON FOR REPLY OF DAVIS TO MINERS' REQUEST

Operators And Strikers Await Decision Of Labor Secretary

Fairmont, W. Va., July 3.—Both operators and striking miners looked expectantly today toward Washington for the reply of Secretary of Labor Davis to the request of the United Mine Workers for government intervention in the West Virginia industrial war.

Van A. Bittner, generalissimo of the striking union miners, expressed confidence that the department of labor would at least investigate the dispute that resulted in the strike call on April 1, when mine workers refused to consider a wage reduction.

In his appeal to Secretary Davis, the union official warned that a general strike in the bituminous fields would be called, if the operators were not compelled to stand by their wage agreement with the union.

George S. Brackett, representing the Associated Operators, said his organization was watching with interest the latest move of the United Mine Workers to preserve the wage agreement abrogated by the operators.

"The situation in West Virginia is different than in any other mining section," said Brackett. "Here the mines are owned by local men who must take a reasonable profit or close their mines. We have no grievance against the union, but we cannot pay the wage demanded by the United Mine Workers without operating at a loss, in view of existing market prices."

SON OF EX-SENATOR SUED FOR DIVORCE

Washington, July 3.—Intemperance and cruelty is charged by Mrs. Philander Chas. Knox, Jr., in a suit for maintenance filed here against her husband, son of the late Senator Knox of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Knox has left Washington and is at the home of her parents in Charleston, W. Va.

Knox divorced his first wife in Reno in 1916.

GARVERS COMMENT BY HOME EX-PUPIL AT CLOSING SESSION

Resolutions commending the administration under Superintendent and Mrs. Sylvius Garver of the O. S. and S. O. Home and recommending their re-appointment, were passed by the Ex-pupils Association at the concluding business session of the forty-fifth annual reunion. The day's session closed at 4 o'clock.

The resolutions also commended the school system under Professor W. S. Sackett, the band and orchestra under Professor Seal and the temporary appointment of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Breil as heads of the Home. They also congratulated Miss Rose Bauerle, veteran employee, the class of original Home pupils present and the officers of the association who had charge of this year's program.

The resolutions in reference to the Garvers, said in part: "We approve and commend the wisdom and parental love at all times manifested in the progressive administration of the Home affairs under the unselfish and patriotic guidance of Colonel Garver and Mrs. Anna Noble Garver, as superintendent and chief matron for the past four years. Their unselfish devotion to the best interests of the children has not only aroused our pride and highest praise but has attracted favorable state wide attention."

The resolution said the administration eliminated "institutionalism," expressed regret at the passing of the Garvers but pledged support of the association to their successors, Ed. W. Hughes, Columbus, parliamentarian for the state legislature, was chairman of the resolutions committee which also consisted of Ike Thrasher, Newport, Ky., and Dr. George Lampe, Cincinnati.

Plans for a Labor Day picnic of the Ex-pupils' Association were laid at the meeting. The picnic will probably be held at Russell's Point and will be the second affair of that nature, the first being held last year at the Franklin Chautauque. The picnic will be open to all members of the association who care to attend.

A photograph of the six original Home pupils, in the institution when it was started in 1869, was ordered framed and hung in the Library. The library itself is the gift of the association.

The reunion closed Thursday night with the annual dance in a pavilion on the lawn.

REDUCE YOUR OIL CONSUMPTION BY PERFECT CIRCLE

Perfect regulation-positive lubrication.
Perfect regulation-positive lubrication. Piston Ring, sold at the Swigart Brothers' Garage, East Second Street has an annular groove turned on the face of the ring, midway between the edges. At equal intervals in this groove, slots are milled through to the inner surface of the ring. The groove which is turned on the surface collects the oil from the cylinder wall and, as the groove fills, the surplus is drained away through the slots. The oil that is thus collected behind the ring is drained back into the crank case by means of holes drilled through the inner wall of the ring groove.

The superiority of the Perfect Circle Oil Regulating Ring is due to its double function. First it regulates lubrication by returning surplus oil to the crank case. Second, it provides positive lubrication of the cylinder wall. The use of Perfect Circle Oil Regulating Rings reduces oil consumption to a minimum, thereby eliminating the evil of fouled plugs and carbon deposits.

DAIRY PRODUCTS SELLS MILK, THE ALL PERFECT FOOD

Milk is the answer to all diet questions. It is the all-satisfying and required food. But to meet these requirements, milk must first of all be pure and fresh.

When in its proper state, milk combines all the properties of a health-giving and nourishing food. It is a refreshing drink and satisfying food for young and old and plays an important part in the preparation of and as a food alone.

To meet the demands of the small number who do not like milk alone as a beverage and health food, The Dairy Products Company has combined the healthy factors of milk and the rich sweetness of chocolate in a delicious drink, called "Drinkmor." The product is safe, healthful and delicious and one of the most popular of summer drinks.

Milk, cream, whipping cream, butter, buttermilk and "Drinkmor" and all dairy products sold by The Dairy Products Company are pure and fresh. The company's delivery trucks will leave any of these articles at your door.

FOLLOW YOUR TEAM PLAY BY PLAY AT HAYWARD'S STORE

Remember the old song, "Take me out to the ball game, take me along with the crowd." It expressed the popularity of the national game during the early years of the twentieth century, for in those days one had to go to the ball game to keep in touch with the success or failure of the "home team."

Not so today. Ball fans are aware of the progress of the game almost as soon as the events of the game take place. They can collect at one popular spot and enjoy the game play-by-play, even though they are many miles away. This is by means of the ticker service that tells the events of the game over the world.

The installation of a ticker at the Hayward Cigar Store the past few years has occasioned an increase in the already large business of that concern.

For when you get good tobacco, sandwiches and drinks and reliable returns on the favorite ball players, the attraction for men is apparent. The Hayward Store specializes in all these things and is one of the main centers of interest for men of the city.

REDUCE OPERATIONS

Yorkville, July 3 — Further reduction of non-union mine operations in the northern Panhandle of West Virginia, where a strike has been in progress for several months, is reported by A. R. Watkins, international executive board member of the United Mine Workers, he said today. A big mine at Beech Bottom, W. Va., has laid off 200 men, Watkins declared, asserting that this report answered arguments of operators that non-union fields are gaining business at the expense of the union mines.

"GUARDSMAN" POLICE DOG TRAINED HERE CHALLENGING "STRONGHEART"

"GUARDSMAN"

"Strongheart", wonder dog of the movies now has a rival for honors in Xenia.

The new bidder for screen honors is "Guardsman", trained German police dog, owned by Kenneth Estabrook, Dayton, and being kept at the Shawnee Kennels, West Main Street, while he is trained in the finer tricks by Frank Gillespie, Middletown, veteran animal trainer.

Accompanied by Gillespie on walks around Xenia, the dog has attracted considerable attention here when put through his tricks on the street. The trainer was formerly with the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus, and in addition to the bag of tricks "Guardsman" picked up preceding and during a Keith vaudeville circuit career, he has taught the dog many more complicated stunts than the rate animal at almost human intelligence.

Private showings of the dog life-saving stunt before the camera of the Pathe Company recently, said to be forerunners of the screen career the dog is being fitted to and it is expected he will challenge "Strongheart", "Rin-Tin-Tin" and other famous canines the shadow land.

"Guardsman" is four years old and first attracted public attention three years ago when he captured runaway convict from an Albar prison after four days and nights of trailing. The animal has been known in field trials to pick up several distinct scents in 350 yards. The dog has also taken numerous ribbons for its master in bench shows of this section, including two prizes and two third prizes at Springfield in 1922 and one prize at Cincinnati in 1922 and a second at Dayton in 1923.

So carefully has he been trained that the dog will do his team bidding with almost human intelligence, seeming to respond to spoken word in this way he has attracted attention of Xenians on the streets here, carrying the trained stick leading another dog by chain, accepting or refusing food, even staging a mock dog fight, realistic as to thrill watchers, then breaking away and leaving other dog unharmed when trainer calls "time".

Recently "Guardsman" showed his prowess by jumping in Aquatic Company swimming pool at West Church Street, and pulling a swimmer apparently drowned.

The affair was staged as an exhibition, and at the call of "help" the dog responded with a heroic rescue that astonished watchers. The dog frequently pulls its owner, Mr. Estabrook, who weighs 190 pounds, way across the Miami River out assistance, and will not relinquish the task until he has a owner safe on dry ground. The life-saving stunt was repeated at Island Park, Dayton, Thursday for Path camera men with Joe Herr, Xenia acting as the "subject".

Mr. Estabrook has taken the dog to Lake Huron for a series of life-saving trials that are expected to prove his superiority to many of show dogs now bidding for popular acclaim.

COLOR.

MEN are becoming vain and colorful creatures.

Neckties, shirts and socks—everywhere a touch of color can be added finds the male breaking out in rainbow mixtures once claimed only for the female of the specie.

The reaction from the war, the peculiar stimulant of the jazz age that has taken the place of the artificial intoxication of pre-prohibition days of a natural envy of the gentler sex, are blamed for the new color scheme that has involved men in its toils.

Dye makers have conceived most brilliant and attractive hues to which they have applied most fascinating names. Women have opened up to them avenues of warm colors from the Orient, vivid and brilliant hues from Morocco and Algiers, softly beautiful shades copied from paintings of the old masters and joyous colors drawn from nature, and matched artfully by the color expert.

Into this mass of color the men are now wading, with an ever-growing desire for exotic cravats and pocket-squares to match, a riot of checker-board on the hose and vari-colored shirts that may dazzle the eye-sight but never fail to attract it.

CROSSES

OHIO motorists may drive "between the row on row" that mark the places of the dead, if Governor Vic Donahey's traffic lesson wins support over the state.

The chief executive proposes that small white crosses be erected along the highways wherever a life has been lost due to a traffic accident. It is his belief that motorists, driving past these reminders of tragedies, will harken to the need of careful driving and approach the danger spots cautiously.

There is undoubtedly considerable virtue in the plan of the governor, for Americans must have their little lessons forced down their throats before they get any benefit from them. But it must be remembered that large, white crosses that have stood on the highways for years, marking, perhaps, numerous tragedies, have so far been unavailing in the campaign to eliminate fatal accidents.

They are the crosses erected by the railroad companies, marking the spot where the tracks cross the highway, and emblazoned with the warning "stop, look and listen." Perhaps each of them marks the scene of a tragedy for few railroad crossings have not taken their toll, especially since the introduction of the automobile and the speed element.

These crosses vary slightly from the type suggested by the governor, and it may be that they cause no gruesome memories. The little white crosses suggested for Ohio roads, will at least make driving less cheerful, whether they inspire any sense of responsibility or not.

HOLIDAYS

WE people of the newspapers learn to look at every holiday as an occasion when accidents, tragedies and fatalities will vie with each other for space in the telegraph news reports to the papers.

It is therefore timely that President Coolidge has suggested the Fourth of July this year as National Defense Day. It is opportunity for people to demonstrate in defense against the holiday joy-rider, the man who rocks the boat and the chap who didn't know it was loaded.

Pleasure, driving dull care away, too often drives away responsibility and the normal caution. Pleasure-bent motorists involved in merry conversation with fellow-passengers, see the railroad crossing too late, or are inspired by idle boasts and brags, to attempt to beat the train.

National Defense Day on Independence Day should be then a timely occasion for defense against the ravages of irresponsible traffic that claims hundreds of lives yearly, in the United States.

POVERTY

"NINETY-FOUR per cent of members of dependent families have some disease or physical defect," A. W. Frye, supreme commander of the Maccabees, pointed out in a recent address.

Under-nourishment, ignorance of and lack of care of teeth, enlarged tonsils and adenoids due to lack of treatment and living conditions that handicap physical and mental growth, are some of the conditions these people face.

This condition exists in the face of the efforts of hundreds of agencies that spread Christian-like welfare work through those so handicapped, yet the work is only a drop in the bucket to the vast amount of work necessary to re-condition those needing attention.

JUST FOLKS

FOURTH OF JULY

My country's birthday! In the morning sun
Old Glory ripples, beautiful to see,
Unstained by hatred, shame or tyranny!
Now are the round of duties, is begun,
From this day's minutes, let me take,
but one,
And as a child unto its parent's knee

Comes with its birthday offering happily,
So let me come, a loving, grateful son.

Oh, lovely country! May your years be long,
And may your joys of righteousness increase!

May God bestow on you His precious peace,
Grant you the gifts of laughter and of song,
And may you stand where'er your feet are unfurled.

A high example for a groping world.

ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY NINE YEARS AFTER

1905-Twenty Years Ago-1925

The Miami Valley Fruit Company organized by J. E. Peterson, Greene County man, has purchased 1,113 acres of land at Fort Valley, Ga., paying $30 an acre for the tract.

Prof. George H. Eckerle, former Xenia, and prominent educator, has been chosen by the new board of Jamestown to be the new superintendent of schools at that place.

Clarence Tate, who is employed at Massillon, O., spent Tuesday at his home in this city.

Exciting races were run at Jamestown before a large crowd Tuesday afternoon.

STATE CLUB LEADER MAY CONDUCT CAMP

Guy Dowdy, assistant state boys' and girls' club leader is planning to spend the entire week at the boys' and girls' club camp which will be held July 20 to 25.

Mr. Dowdy will superintend the camp in case a successor to County Agent Ford S. Prince is not named before that time.

Mr. Dowdy, who has promised to attend the camp assures the boys and girls who are planning to go a splendid camp as he has had wide experience in conducting club camps.

Health Warning

Eat the right breakfast hot days

Quick Mother's Oats cooks in 3 to 5 minutes
Supplies the energy you need

SOME people make a practice of passing vigor foods in summer. That's a mistake.

Above all things, you must eat foods that give strength. For hot days drag energy away.

For breakfast have oats and milk.

Quick Mother's Oats cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. And that makes it easy. No hot kitchens. No fuming, no frying, no stewing.

Start on oats tomorrow. Note how good you'll feel. Mark the way that dragged-out feeling goes.

You'll smile at hot days. You'll work better, think better. Just try it!—See the difference.

Today's Talks

YOUTH

Every precious element in life buds in youth. The rich juices of the Creator's art, springing from the very earth itself, flow into all that is youth.

So that youth is all inspiration, all vibration, all expectancy and so it is unbound.

Like the flowers of the tiniest strength, youth arises from its nest to face the bitterest storms without fear. It is only when the older heads baffled for so many years, offer advice and counsel that youth hesitates.

It is so strange that the newer generations profit so little from those who have gone before. Emerson was quite right in speaking of life as a thing that was very much like a circle in which the experiences of all finally came back to melt together as one.

Yet youth will always be glorious. Like the reddened sunset bather in gold.

And youth will always remain as the inspiration for age. The father will see himself again in his son, the mother herself as a little girl again in the romping tot at her feet.

All greatness grows mellow and tender as it fondles the baby in its heart and breathes beauty over and over again because the only things in life which are truly sordid are those things which are abandoned crusts with the touch of youth faded and dried from their elements.

Nothing should bind healthy youth. It should have its world and its chance.

Every encouragement should be given youth for self-expression, unhampered by foolish convention and manners.

Youth should know that its parentage is that of nature in whose bowels live no unhealthy sources for destruction.

God gives youth. And what He gives He never takes back. It is for you who have this precious thing of youth to give of it freely and to beautify and enrich the earth from its purifying fire.

When your youth is gone from your heart, you are no more.

SHOWERS MAY HALT FOURTH OBSERVANCE

Saturday will mark another safe and sane Fourth of July in Xenia. No special form of celebration has been planned for the city. Residents are planning private picnic parties. The largest celebration will be held at the O. S. and S. O. Home, where the veterans' association of Montgomery County will hold an outing. The Xenia Country Club will attract a large number of people, club members and their guests enjoying the day with golf and luncheon parties. A mixed tournament has been planned at the club.

Unsettled weather is promised for Saturday throughout the Miami Valley, with probably showers. The intense heat of Thursday diminished to a more comfortable temperature Friday, and a cool breeze gave relief to heat-sufferers.

DAYTON ATTORNEY WILL FIGHT RATES

Columbus, O., July 3.—W. S. McConaughy, former city solicitor of Dayton, and who conducted the Dayton Telephone rate case before the state utilities commission, is expected to direct the statewide investigation of the proposed telephone rate increases of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company. Attorney General Crabbe announced today.

The inquiry is expected to get underway soon after July 20, when the act authorizing the probe becomes effective. The 1925 state legislature appropriated $100,000 for expenses.

MIDDLETOWN MAN KILLED BY AUTO

Middletown, O., July 3 J. F. Cochran, 30, resident near Engle Corner, 2 miles south of here, died at City hospital at 8:00 o'clock from injuries suffered when he was run down near his home by an auto driven on Dixie highway by Dr. H. M. Porter, colored, 28 Sprague Street, Dayton.

Cochran was driving cows along the highway at the time of the accident.

HIGH SCHOOL CLASS MEMBERS HOLD REUNION

The class of 1922, Spring Valley High School, held its annual class supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L.J. Willenburg, Tuesday.

The home was beautifully decorated with the class colors of red and white. The out of town guests were Professor Dean, of Jamestown, Miss Rosalie Hollingshead, of Cincinnati, Mr. Ralph Haines, of Marion, Ohio, and Mrs. Terrell, of Xenia. The consists of thirteen members, ten boys and three girls.

FORMER XENIA MAN ENTERS URBANA FIELD

According to announcement which has just been made, the Urbana Democrat and Citizen, newspapers of Urbana, Ohio, have been purchased by a company headed by C. F. Ridenour, of Piqua, and formerly of this city.

Mr. Ridenour assumed charge of the property on July 1st, after the purchase from the estate of the late F. C. Gaumer, who had operated the business in Urbana for many years.

Mr. Ridenour was formerly city editor of the Xenia papers, The Evening Gazette and The Morning Republican and left this city in 1919 to take the management of the Piqua Call. No announcement of future plans for the Urbana paper have been made but his many friends in this city wish him success in his new venture.

SWAN TRIAL IS SET FOR MONDAY MORNING

The jury trial of Lewis Swan, this city, on a charge of unlawful possession of narcotics, is set for Monday morning in Common Pleas Court. A jury in the case will be selected from the venire called for the May term of court.

Swan was arrested several months ago by authorities who claimed they found six tablets of morphine and drug equipment. He was indicted on the grand jury and entered a plea of not guilty to the indictment when arraigned.

BREAKFAST GIVEN FOR SOUTHERN GUEST

For the pleasure of Mrs. Roger Fudge, of Miami, Fla., who is spending several months in the North with her husband, Mrs. John P. Fudge, entertained in a charming manner with a breakfast party at her home, on the Union Road, Thursday morning.

Six quartet tables were laid on the spacious porches of the attractive Fudge home. The approach of Independence Day lent a festive air to the occasion and flags, fireworks and flowers decked each table. The floral bouquets carried out the national colors. Three courses were served. The guest list included twenty-four Wilmington people and from Xenia vicinity.

ENTERTAINS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS THURSDAY

The members of Mrs. R. E. Brown's Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church were delightfully entertained at an afternoon party at the home of Mrs. Brown on East Market Street, Thursday.

Eleven children enjoyed games and croquet on the lawn of the Brown home and later were served a dainty refreshment course by the hostess.

Ad Stunt Arouses Brazil

When the citizenry of Sao Paulo, Brazil, awoke one summer morning to find every statue in the city sporting the latest model straw hat, intense indignation followed. The proprietor of a chain hat store did a rushing business, nevertheless. This is how the statue of Carlos Gomes, noted composer, looked.

FORMER XENIA GIRL MARRIED IN DAYTON

Xenia relatives have received the announcement of the marriage of Miss Velma Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Peterson, of Hodapp Ave., Dayton, formerly of Xenia, to Mr. Harold Kenney, of Dayton, Tuesday, June 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenney will reside with the bridegroom's parents in Dayton. Mrs. Kenney has been organist at the Strand Theater, Dayton.

WILL BE HOSTESSES TO MCLELLAND W. C. T. U.

Mrs. J. S. Van Eaton and daughter, Mrs. Margaret Martin will be hostesses to the members of the McClelland W. C. T. U. at their home on the Lower Bellbrook Pike, Wednesday afternoon July 8, at 1:30, slow time.

Mrs. Olive Dean, county superintendent of Christian Citizenship and Miss Marie Meahl, recent graduate of the Lucy Webb Hayes Training School for Girls will give the principal addresses of the day along welfare lines. Their addresses will be of interest to every member.

Special musical selections will intersperse the program. Each member is urged to be present and to bring dues for the year as the year is about to close.

Mr. Arthur Thornhill, Indian Riffle Road, severely lacerated his right thumb when the member was caught in a hay fork Friday noon. The injury was dressed by a Xenia physician, who hopes to prevent amputation.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nixon, near Chilton, are the parents of a daughter, born Friday morning.

SMALL COUNTIES TO BENEFIT MOST FROM NEW GASOLINE TAX

Greene and other small Ohio counties will be more benefited by the Brown gas tax bill than the larger counties in point of financial gain, according to the County Auditor's office.

Thirty per cent of the money derived from the gas tax will revert back to the municipalities of the state in proportion to the number of automobiles registered in the various cities and villages, officials say.

Under this provision, the more populated counties have a slight advantage and reap a bigger dividend but the smaller counties get the larger "drag" as twenty-five per cent is returned to the counties on an equal basis. The remaining forty-five per cent goes to the state highway department for the repair and maintenance of inter-county highways but not to build new roads. Each county's share goes for county roads.

Greene County will receive one-eighth of the twenty-five per cent of the entire tax collection. Although the tax law reduces the license fee one-half, effective in 1926, the various taxing districts will receive a greater amount from the gas tax itself.

In 1924 approximately 6,500 autos were registered in the county while the total amount distributed to the taxing districts from license fees was nearly $30,000.

MARKSMEN RECORD HIGH SHOOT SCORES

Greene County marksmen recorded good scores in the third shoot of the season of the Central Ohio Trapshooting League held Wednesday afternoon at the headquarters of the Amateur Trapshooting Association at Vandalia, Dayton.

In the 100-bird sixteen-yard event, G. R. Spahr, of Jamestown, made the best score of the Greene County entries when he shattered ninety-four of the clay targets. Dick Denison, of Yellow Springs, shot eight-nine, H. L. Davison, of Yellow Springs, eighty-six and G. V. Irvine of Cedarville, eighty-three.

Spahr also topped the local entries in the handicap 100-yard target event by breaking ninety-three, followed by Denison with ninety-two and Davison with eighty-seven. Spahr broke fifteen out of twenty in the twenty-target event.

ZIMMERMAN

The June meeting of the Faithful Workers Sunday School Class was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Coy. A very pleasant evening was spent. Mrs. Coy read an interesting story of the Song, "The Bird With A Broken Wing," and Miss Grace Miller, sang the solo, Mrs. A. D. Wenrick, president, presided at the meeting. Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Eidemiller, were present. The July meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Christie Sipe and daughter, Miss Ella Sipe, Wednesday evening, July 15.

Rev. Robinson of Pleasant Hill, delivered an interesting address at this place June 21. Also a helpful talk to the children at S. S. and conducted a conference of S. S. Workers Sunday afternoon. Sunday School problems discussed were: "How To Get Pupils To Study the S. S. Lesson," "How To Get Pupils Into the S. S. Class," "The Indifferent Person," etc. Suggestions for the solution of some of these, were the assignment of special topics to different pupils to report on the following Sunday. He urged the use of the Sand Table as a means of Expression for the Primary Children. The older persons and young people have been successfully reached thru the Social affairs of many churches.

Mr. Robinson said. He spoke of the inexpensive homemade blackboard for each S. S. Room, also maps. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Koogler were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koogler, and supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carlisle at Yellow Springs.

Miss Mary Barron returned to her home in Zimmerman after completing a term of school at Hibbing, Minn., and is now enjoying a three week's trip to New York and Boston. She will be home about the middle of July.

Mrs. Rebecca Lafong spent a recent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. I. N. Kable at Shoup's Station. Mrs. Lafong is 89 years old and is as active and alert as many younger persons.

two children at their summer home at Shoup's Station.

Clifford Williamson attended the wedding of his former classmate William Berry at Hammond, Ind., at which he officiated as best man. He also visited his brother Herman Williamson at Evanston, Ill.

The Mt. Zion Congregation gave a reception in the basement of the church, Tuesday evening July 1 in honor of Rev. Doyle Warner, wife and baby. Rev. Warner is the newly elected pastor of the Beaver and Mt. Zion churches. An interesting entertainment was given by the C. E. Society. Following which a reception was held at the head of the stairway, where the members of the church were presented to their pastor and his wife.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served in the basement which was prettily decorated with pink and white flowers, crepe paper and candles. The same color notes of pink and white were used in the refreshments. The committee in charge of the affair was composed of Mrs. Otto Kelter Mrs. Russell Schultz and Mrs. Charles Kable. Rev. and Mrs. Warner are already domiciled in the parsonage near Beaver church.

The Beaver High School Alumni Banquet at K. of P. Hall Friday evening was a very delightful affair. A reception was held in the High school Building from 6:30 to 7:30 where a delicious two course supper was served by the Missionary Society of Mt. Zion Church. Tables were decorated with candles and flowers. Favors were dainty boxes of artificial daisies. Harry Darst acted as toastmaster and talks were made by Charles Snyder of Dayton; Otto Kelter, Carl Merriek, Mrs. Harline Hagenbuck, Mrs. Earnest Bradford. Music was furnished by an Orchestra composed of local players, and persons from other neighborhoods.

The annual Fourth of July picnic of the S. S. at this place will be held at the river near the Indian Riffle Bridge on the H. M. Stewart farm Saturday beginning at 10:00 a. m. Picnic dinner, free ice cream and bathing.

XENIAN AWARDED VERDICT IN COURT

L. T. Marshall was awarded judgment by default in Fayette County Common Pleas Court, Wednesday morning, when the defendants in the action, Foren Fields, Minnie Fields, W. A. Stewart and Ada M. Young failed to appear to contest the case. The plaintiff asked judgment in the sum of $237.15 and interest at 7 per cent from March 5, on a note endorsed by the defendants. The jury and court waited sometime for the defendants to appear.

Marshall and Marshall of Xenia were attorneys for the plaintiff and D. C. Badger, Columbus for W. A. Stewart.

FRIDAY TOURNEY AT COUNTRY CLUB FEATURE SATURDAY

Eighteen-hole mixed foursome tournament will be staged at the Xenia Country Club Saturday afternoon. Fourth of July, as the second Friday tournament to be held this year, it is announced by Chalmers Murphy, chairman of the tournament committee. A record entry is expected with fair weather prevailing.

W. Crawford Craig, Xenia's foremost amateur golfer, is in charge of the entries and requests that all golfers entering, register with him in pairs as early as possible. The tournament will get under way at 1:30 p. m.

Men and women golfers are asked to enter in pairs. Entries will draw for partners and the tournament will be based on handicaps. Golf balls will be awarded the winners as prizes. The course has been placed in top-notch condition and the Saturday tournament is expected to result in a number of low scores.

XENIA GOLFERS IN VICTORY AT PIQUA IN LEAGUE MATCH

A golf quartet of the Xenia Country Club gave Xenia its second victory in the Dayton District Golf Association League by defeating Piqua Country Club four at Piqua Thursday afternoon by a score of 3 matches to 1.

Xenia still has a losing percentage in the league despite the Piqua victory with eight points won and twelve lost. The local club has won two matches, lost two and tied one in the league to date.

Xenia was represented by Ed. Davidson, class A; R. S. Kingsbury, class B; A. H. Finlay, class C; S. M. McKay, class D. Of the local players, Kingsbury lost the only match. He was pitted against Piqua's best player, Simpkinson, who lived up to his reputation by shooting the eighteenth holes in eighty-one, scoring a fine thirty-six on the first nine.

Xenia will probably play Wilbur Wright Field four in a league match next week, it is announced. Wright Field recently replaced the Springfield Country Club in the league.

JEFFERSONVILLE PLAYS SATURDAY

The Jeffersonville Indians and the Roush Constructors baseball team of Springfield will stage a Fourth of July baseball classic at the Cedarville College diamond Saturday afternoon. The Constructors are not unknown to Greene County ball fans, having been defeated by the Bowersville Bayliffs earlier in the season. The Constructors recently changed their name to the present title and under new financial backing, are touted as one of the strongest teams in Springfield.

The Indians are practicing earnestly for the game and sharpening their eyes to bat against Paul Helm, the Springfield nine's star twirler.

BUILD NEW SCHOOLS

Barton, July 3—Because of the rapidly-growing demand for additional school accommodations in this section of Belmont County, Colerain Township will erect five new school buildings during 1925. Contracts will be awarded on July 25. The schools will be at Barton, Maynard, Crescent, Farmington and Morning View.

Lemons Tighten Wrinkled Skin

Squeeze the juice of two lemons in a bottle containing three ounces of Orchaud White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents, shake well and you have the very mildest anti-wrinkle lotion to tighten relaxed skin, erase fine lines and eradicate crows' feet.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion into the skin at night. By morning most of the telltale wrinkles, tired lines and crow-feet are smoothed out, giving a more youthful contour to cheeks, chin, throat. It leaves the skin velvety soft, clear and fresh.

Beauty experts use this stringent lotion for enlarged pores, also to bleach and whiten sallow, tanned skin.

Mix this harmless lotion yourself since it acts best immediately after prepared.

GREB, WILLS AND SHADE WHITE PUGILISTIC HISTORY BY WINNING EVENTS FOR CHARITY

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
New York, July 3—A new chapter in pugilistic history, fairly reeking of drama, was sent to the composing room last night to be set in bold face caps in a series of typographical shrieks.

While upward of $60,000 looked on the names of Harry Greb, Harry Wills and Dave Shade were engraved upon the pages of the prize ring's "blue back" by winning respectively from Mickey Walker, Charley Weinert and Jimmy Slattery in the feature bouts of the Italian hospital fund show at the Polo Grounds.

Greb, defending his middleweight title against Walker, welterweight champion, got a unanimous decision at the end of fifteen rounds and had Walker almost out in the fourteenth. The latter proved that a good little man can be a good big man on the thirty second day of the month.

Wills, so called logical contender for the heavyweight championship, stopped Weinert with a right to the jaw in the second round. The result left Wills as logical as a prosecuting attorney and proved that Weinert's supposed comeback was aught but a snare and a delusion.

The writer expected him to come back into his, the writer's lap, at any given moment and he almost did. The great Slattery, with a half million in front of him, was knocked out by Shade in the third round for something in the neighborhood of $5,000. The crowd is still reeling from the shock of this one and it must go down on the books as a tactical triumph for Leo P. Flynn, who sent Shade in against Slattery bent almost double.

The Buffalo entry was pleased to stand with his hands at his sides, as always and bring up his punches. But one cannot bring up punches on a man who is half way down, can one? Obviously, one can not.

Slattery hardly laid a glove on the weaving and bobbing Shade who carried the fight to his man for the first two rounds, and, in the third, fairly leaped from the floor with a right that dropped Slattery for the first time in his career. He forsook the perpendicular twice more from rights to the jaw and then the towel, mute token of surrender, fluttered out from his corner.

Slattery was a 4 to 1 shot and some of the boys were carefully masticating a single, individual and lone cup of coffee this morning.

SOLDIER SOCIETIES TO PICNIC AT HOME

The annual basket picnic of the various soldier organizations of Montgomery County will be held at the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home, this city, Saturday.

About 2000 members of the Montgomery County Veterans' Association are expected to attend. The program will include an entertainment for the children of the home, athletic contests and a band concert by the women's band of the Spanish-American War Veterans auxiliary. A picnic supper will be enjoyed on the lawn.

John F. Braun, of the Colonel Liscomb camp of the S. A. W. V. is chairman of the committee on arrangements. The American Legion, G. A. R., S. of V. and the Disabled Veterans of the World War will take part in the picnic.

Sayre & Hemphill Kids!

Some years ago one morning I broke out in a sort of rash and by noon I found it was an IDEA trying to break thru!

Always be kind to young BOY and GIRL customers for SOME DAY they'll GROW UP and SPEND MONEY in my store!

So I started being friendly with Kids on a BUSINESS BASIS.

Before long I found out that I got MORE PLEASURE from the time spent with the youngsters than from any other source! I found that the average boy's viewpoint on most subjects was cleaner, clearer and finer many times than my own and instead of ME helping the youngsters THEY WERE HELPING ME!

I found that association with KIDS (not Kiddies) kept me younger, happier and smilier and I forgot entirely all about their being FUTURE CUSTOMERS. They just got to be darn GOOD FRIENDS.

Today I'm ashamed of my original IDEA!

I found out that grown ups—many of them—get into the habit of looking on the world as being made entirely FOR grown ups—the Kids could just tag along.

I found out that Kids have a world of their own (just like I once had only I'd been forgetting about it) which is just as real and a heap sight more interesting than the grown up world.

I found that one can stay young LONGER if one can GET THE PRIVILEGE to climb up to this Kidland and can have a Kid Guide show you the ropes! For believe me, it IS a PRIVILEGE!

Yessur, I'm for Kids aplenty and without any lugs, checks or balances and it's entirely a nomatter matter with me whether they're ever customers of mine or not!

DOC. SAYRE.

Shorty Says—

It just goes to show what a sucker I am!

I read what Doc wrote up above and I hiked over to that kid's house that lent me his suit the other day and got it all on again! Thought I'd make a hit with the Boss. Then I comes tripping into the store rolling a hoop and ridin on roller skates!

Gosh, you otto heard Doc holler!

Course I grant that mebbe I was a LEETLE boisterous and I DID knock over a stand full of glass bottles full of medicine and I DID break a couple glasses out of ashow case, but gosh fo that stuff of Doc's got me all het up!

What I was trying to do was to climb out of this damp-holl grownups world and into another one without going to the trouble of dieting! That was EXACTLY what I had in mind!

If I hadn't got out of the store EXACTLY when I did and if Doc had hit EXACTLY where he aimed with that gallon bottle, I'd a sure been in some other world and it wouldn't a been any Kid world neither, what I mean.

I like Doc's talk all right and Doc is all right I guess, but I'm telling you right here and now: I'm going to do any talking that's necessary with Doc OVER THE PHONE! For a week or so anyhow.

Baby Powder $1.00.

It's called "Vanity" powder and is talcum with not only a clean kindly odor but has some sort of uptiddiddle in it that's very soothing and comforting to one's cuticle. We don't believe a person's vain who uses it effier.

Bath Salts 75c

A person nowadays doesn't need to be a millionaire to FEEL like one. Certainly a smidgin of these salts dropped in a warm bath tub before you insert yourself in same makes you enjoy a very LARGE feeling.

Stearate of Zinc 25c

A powdery soothing lotion for which itchy, puzzled holes have a great affection. Babies with their tender pink cuticle are made especially happy with only a light application.

Liggett Fruit Syrups 39c.

These are made in the localities where the fruit is grown and as a consequence are pure, perfect and "in tune." This also accounts for their low price. A bottle makes 40 big glasses when mixed with water.

Gem Razor 69c

Not a whole lot of use advertising these as most everyone over 15 in Xenia HAS a razor. A splendid "buy" anyhow and can be laid away for an Xmas gift.

M. of Magnesia Tooth Paste 39c

There's been plenty of compliments from Xenia folks on this new tube. This brand has always enjoyed medical recommendation and its pleasing to get the public's endorsement in addition.

CROSSING THE BAR

I used to stare in wonder into the future days. "When the roll is called up Yonder," I wondered where I'd gaze. I wondered what I'd look like as down the streets I'd go; would I ride a horse, a two-wheeled bike, or in a fine auto?

When my days of work were ended and I took my coat and hat, would my steps be quickly wended to a wife in some small flat? Would there be young kids to patter and climb upon my knees? Would I sit at home and chatter, wishing I again were free.

Would my pate be bald and glistening? Would lumbergo reek my frame? Would I be forever listening to the scoldings of some dame? Oh, I wondered of my filly—my poor old broken cart—would I have torpid liver or enlargement of the heart?

Would I think the world outrageous and carry round a frown? Would I think all sin contagious and fear to go down town? Would I be a grouchy duffer who'd pout at everything? Would I deeply sigh and suffer when I should smile and sing?

But soon I saw that gazing was getting me in bad, and blessings quite amazing, I never knew I had. And though the joys were shining, I looked toward my goal; I spent my days repining and almost lost my soul.

No more the world is shady, nor life a total loss; I smile at every lady and try to kid the boss. I've learned to sing and whistle—to can my gloom and care; with joy I fairly bristle as down the streets I tear. Oh, let misfortune bust me in the days that are to come, my neighbors now all trust me for I have canned the gloom.

WINDOWS UNHURT

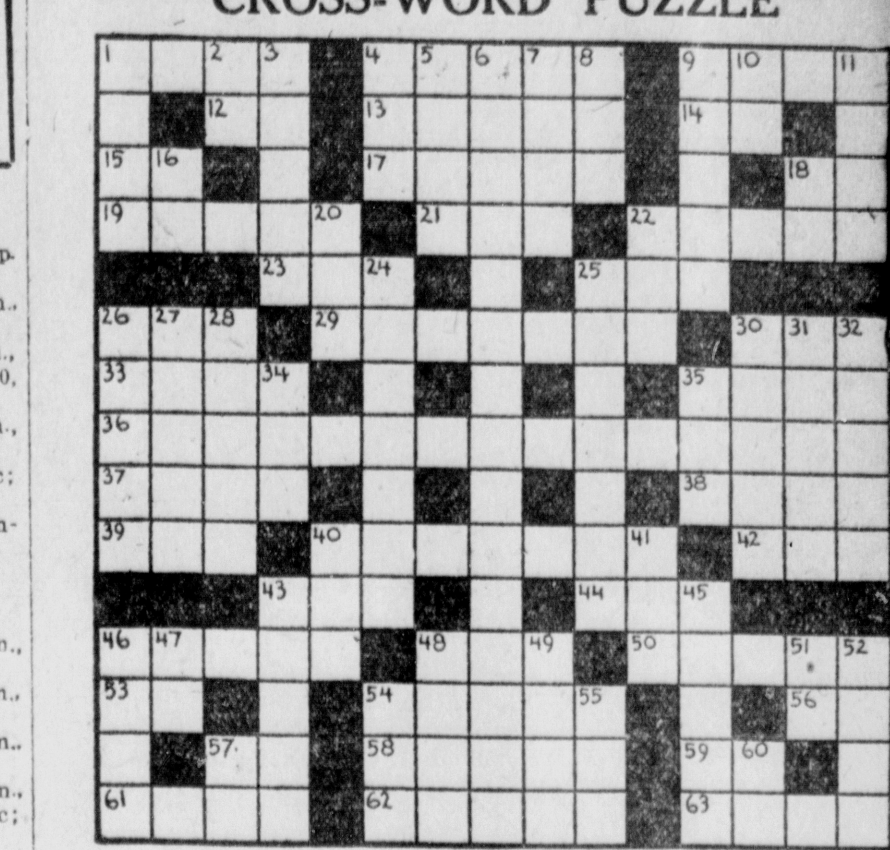

Defiance, July 3—Dynamite sufficient to shatter a block of reinforced concrete weighing eighty-tons was exploded within 10 feet of a large battery of windows at the old Air Reduction plant in East Defiance, and not a single pane of glass was broken. The huge mass was reduced to fragments small enough to be handled with a shovel. Planks, covered with wet burlap, placed over the charges, saved the windows from harm. The block was being moved to make way for foundations for a new battery plant, but it resisted efforts to dislodge it into a pit dug to hold it, so blasting was resorted to.

ONE-MAN TRACTION CARS DELIVERED

The new one-man cars that were scheduled to begin operating on the Springfield and Xenia traction line, July 1, were delivered in Springfield Wednesday, passing through Xenia, enroute from St. Louis, Mo., where they were made.

The three cars that were delivered Wednesday are of the latest design in safety car construction and seat fifty-four passengers each.

The doors are closed by air-pressure and prevent injury to passengers by being well padded with rubber.

The cars, under the one-man operation can only run when the man holds down the lever. It lets go, the lever springs up, shuts off the power and sends the track, preventing the car from leaving the roadway.

The new cars are expected to begin operation in the near future.

ATHLETICS PAY

Marion Ferry, July 3 — Martins Ferry High School athletic contests netted $6,356 profit during the 1924-5 school year, according to reports made public here. Football yielded a profit of $5,390. In the last two years $11,000 in profits on games has been added to the fund for the school's new athletic field.

SCIATIC NEURITIS

The sciatic nerve situated at the back of the hip joint is frequently the subject of Neuritis, giving rise to the painful disease Sciatica. The symptoms are intense pain which shoots down the thigh to the foot, often aggravated by walking, and with painful points along the course of the nerve very tender to the touch.

The disease is a very obstinate one and does not readily respond to ordinary treatment. It takes more than the usual pain sedative even to alleviate the pain.

The quickest, surest way to get rid of the persistent nerve racking pains of Neuritis is to get a bottle of Allenburh Special Formula No. 2, which comes in capsule form. Take them as directed and notice how in about 24 hours they have considerably reduced, if not entirely banished, all pain and soreness. Continue until the Neuritis has entirely disappeared and you are able to work and rest in comfort once again. Sayre & Hemphill keeps this Special Formula No. 2 in stock all the time and sells lots of it. adv

FAMOUS FRENCH RECIPES

GREEN SAUCE

Paris—"Green sauce" is one of the pearls of the French kitchen—one of the oldest of the French repertoire and one of the favorites of Charles V. when Taillevent was his chef. Rabelais also writes of the venders who went through the streets selling "Sauce verte."

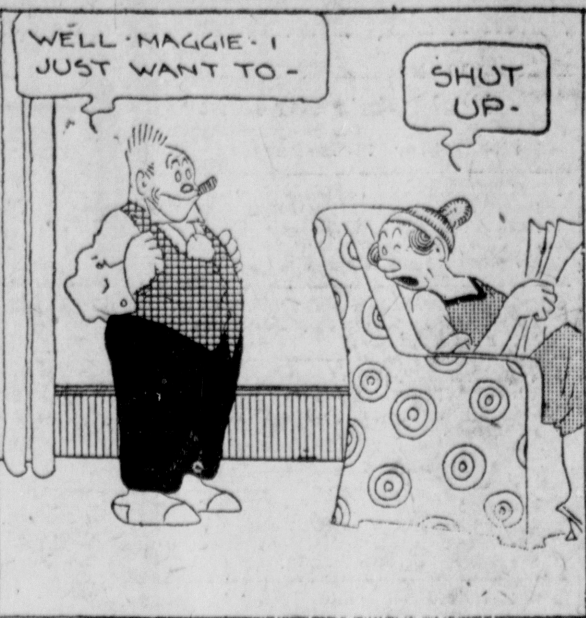

Today, the French housewife prepares a good, well seasoned mayonnaise dressing and adds to it a purée of green herbs such as parley cress and sorrel, finely chopped.

This sauce is especially good with cold fish, lobster and cold meats.

BRINGING UP FATHER

MICHAEL'S MARRIAGE

By MICHAEL

CHAPTER 86

Before dinner the next evening Lillah maneuvered Michael into her room and closed the door.

"Dear, there's something I want to speak to you about. Mother had a little fuss with Sally today. I know she didn't have any business telling Sally how to do things, but she did." She came a little closer.

"Dearest, I know you understand. If you'll just be patient until she goes."

"There's no use saying anything, because you're such a perfect dear you'll speak the piece expected of you. I know they are causing a disturbance in the household."

She slumped down in a chair and brushed away a wisp of hair wearily.

"Oh, Michael, if only you knew. . . I wasn't happy at home. Mother has always had her own way, and has never brooked any opposition. I rebelled, of course, but always in the end, she won. She has always wielded father the same way. Poor soul, he used to rebel too, but he found that the best way was to do as he wanted, and then allow her to say what she pleased."

"But understand, Michael, I love her. She's a dear old thing, only spoiled. There are as many spoiled mothers and wives as there are spoiled children. I suppose every spoiled child grows up to be a spoiled parent, a slave driver to his children."

"Yes," Michael chimed in "and there's hell to pay when two of these spoiled grown-up children marry."

ENFORCE TRAFFIC ORDINANCE MONDAY

Stenciling of Xenia's arterial intersection stop system has virtually been completed by the combined forces of the Greene County Auto Club and the city, and enforcement of this clause of the traffic ordinance will probably begin next Monday, according to Police Chief M. E. Graham.

More than half of the stop signs have been erected at the various intersections on Market Street, a main thoroughfare under the ordinance, and this work will be completed this week.

Motorists are asked to acquaint themselves with the provisions of the ordinance and observe the stop rules on main thoroughfares carefully.

Had skin troubles so bad was ashamed to appear in public Resinol completely healed it

Entriken, Pa., March 4:—"Last summer I had a skin affection on my face, hands and arms. It kept spreading until I could not shave and hated to be seen in public. The itching was very annoying and nothing I tried gave me any relief. A friend recommended your Resinol Ointment and I bought some at once. The first application gave me relief, but I continued using it freely and in a very short time the itching completely disappeared and the trouble was completely cured. Needless to say, I have great faith in "Resinol" for skin disorders." (Signed) J. H. Ketterman.
